

THE THREE LEADERS

—Wilson, the Democrat
—Hughes, the Republican
—Omohundro, the Tailor

Each One Has a Huge Following

The Democrats follow Wilson—the Republicans follow Hughes—and the Men of Washington follow Omohundro's Standard of Up-to-Date Tailoring. Walk up F Street—go to a fashionable gathering—visit a successful mercantile establishment. Pick out the well-dressed business appearing men—wager their clothes were made by Omohundro, and you will win. Go to 818 F Street, where Omohundro makes the clothes of the town; see the great assortment of woollens; sanitary workshops operated by skilled union labor, Omohundro giving his personal supervision to every stitch of tailoring, and then you'll not wonder why the men of Washington go to Omohundro for stylish and well-made

U-BOAT YARNS AMUSE GERMANS IN CAPITAL

Capt. Koenig Expected to Give Currency to Conflicting Stories.

Statements made by Capt. Paul Koenig, of the Deutschland, concerning a convoy and the number of undersea merchantmen built in Germany, were received with smiles in German quarters here. It was declared Capt. Koenig would do much "talking through his hat" before he sails, and that, chief of all, he will attempt to conceal the time of his departure.

If Capt. Koenig says he will leave in three days, it was asserted, he might mean a month, and if he says three weeks, he might mean tomorrow. It is believed at the Navy Department that Germany has constructed at least six submersible merchant vessels and has lost only one, the Bremen. This boat, it is known, sailed from Bremen August 26, and has never been heard from since. It is not believed here that the Bremen was captured, but that she suffered an accident of a nature that never will be known.

Wild Geese Flocks in Missouri Town Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 5.—Many thousands of wild geese, bewildered by the electric lights of the city and the penitentiary, kept nervous people from sleeping the other night. The air was literally alive with them. It was not until daybreak that the last flock found rest on the Missouri River. Hunters say the increased number is due to the Federal law prohibiting shooting of the birds and water fowl during the spring.

It has been discovered that a shrub growing wild throughout the Philippines contains a large amount of atropine and at least one other valuable drug.

NURSE WAS CRIPPLED FROM RHEUMATISM OF JOINTS

FINGERS WERE BENT — Knees stiff and painful—Gives credit to Drecto for recovery.

"I feel that any remedy that will benefit sufferers from rheumatism of the joints should be given the support of all right-thinking men and women," said Miss Irene Bagler, the well known and popular nurse who resides at 809 Sixth street northwest, Washington, D. C.

"I suffered from rheumatism off and on for years. Some years ago the disease became very severe, gradually the joints became stiff and painful, so that I had to stay in bed. My fingers became drawn toward the palm of my hand, the knuckles enlarged, and it was impossible to straighten them. My shoulders were stiff and painful, as well as the muscles from my neck to my shoulders. My knees gave me a great deal of trouble on account of the stiffness and pain; it was impossible for me to climb stairs without great pain. After remaining still I could hardly move because of the stiffness. For months I never left the house and could not attend to my professional duties as a nurse. I know that the average physician will not give any encouragement to anyone suffering as I was from this form of rheumatism, and for that reason I decided to try Drecto, as it was being highly praised by people suffering this way. At first I could see very little change, but by continuing the treatment I began to see some improvement, and gradually the pain and stiffness left me, my fingers returned to normal condition, and I can open and shut my hand without trouble. I am recommending Drecto to all who suffer from rheumatism of the joints."

Drecto is not a cure-all, but is excellent for rheumatism, catarrh, blood disorders, liver and kidney trouble and constipation. There are many diseases due to the beginning to faulty action of the organs of elimination, or sluggishness of the organs of elimination. If these organs fail to perform their duties as intended by Nature, the poisons that should pass out of the system remain and are sucked up by the blood and carried to the different parts of the body. Such troubles, sick headaches, poor circulation, cold feet, poor appetite, nervousness, can be traced in many cases to poor elimination. Drecto is a vegetable preparation made from the juices and extracts of many different roots and herbs. It does not contain any mercury, potash, or other harmful mineral and acts pleasantly on the above organs. Get a bottle of Drecto today from any O'Donnell Drug Store, Allen's in Alexandria, Bury's in Anacostia.—Adv.

"ANGEL DANCER" BACK POSING FOR ARTISTS

"Holy One" Who Stirred Jerseyites to Fury Quits Oblivion.

New York, Nov. 5.—Huntman T. M. Mnsion, or Mnsion T. Huntman, or Madison T. Huntman (rare), or Paul R. M. Mnsion, or simply Mnsion—to use the lone name by which he liked to be called in the days when he was famous as the founder of the Angel Dancers and the Church of the Living God—back again after years of oblivion, and is posing as an artist's model.

For almost a score of years Mnsion also called himself "The Holy One," while he was head of more than a score of Angel Dancers living on "The Lord's Farm" in the Pasack section of Northern New Jersey.

But recently he has turned himself into Santa Claus or King Lear or any other whimsical person that the embryo John Sargeants of the Art Students' League wish him to be as he reports at the league daily to pose for the students.

From the last of the '80s until about 1900 the Holy One gave his attention to being tarred, feathered and ducked in ice water by irate neighbors, being arrested, serving sentences, conducting the Lord's Farm near Woodcliff Lake, being evicted, quoting Scripture, writing hymns and singing them and having his head shaved, and being forcibly shaved by more irate neighbors.

Mnsion first appeared in Northern New Jersey in 1887 as a lay exhorter. He began to see visions and tell the details of the visions in his sermons. The visions bore so marked a resemblance to the doing of the well-known cutups and men about Pasack that one night hands gripped the Holy One in the dark and half his hair and the port wing of his whiskers were shaved off.

26,000,000 SHIRTS PROVIDED FOR ALLIES

Special Cable to The Washington Herald. London, Nov. 5.—Some idea of the enormous amount of goods required in outfitting an army is furnished in statistics prepared here. The woolen cloth alone amounted to more than 90,000,000 yards, the figures show.

Shirt flannel has been bought to the total of 84,000,000 yards. These figures represent solely the army's needs. The demand for flannel has been increased 41 times, for woollens, 61 times, and for cottons, 175 times. About 25 per cent of the woollens and worsteds and 20 per cent of the cotton textiles manufactured in the country were for use of Britain's allies.

More than 26,000,000 shirts have been required for field and training wear, apart from the further huge total needed in the hospitals. 840,000,000 buttons, in all shapes and grades, have been used since the war began.

GAS FLARE SETS BOY AFIRE.

Youth Severely Injured When Jet Flashes from Range.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 5.—His clothing ignited when he attempted to light a gas range, John O'Connor, 14 years old, was badly burned about the face and hands. He is in the Polyclinic Hospital. Gas is supplied to the O'Connor home through a quarter meter. The gas was extinguished and the boy's mother, Mrs. John O'Connor, went into the cellar to deposit a 25-cent piece in the meter. Mrs. O'Connor called to her son that she had deposited the money, and that he could light the range. The boy struck a match and a flame shot out and ignited his clothing.

Long Wait for a Dollar.

Marysville, Pa., Nov. 5.—Ten years ago, while Mrs. Henry Martin conducted a hotel at Millerstown, a stranger, unable to make change, left without paying a bill for a night's lodging. She forgot the incident. Recently she received a $1 bill with a note of thanks for waiting so long for a settlement.

THANKSGIVING BOUNTY LESS AS NEED GROWS

High Cost of Living Militates Against Holiday Job Among Poor.

The high cost of living has almost completely knocked the joy out of life for the poor of Washington, who will have little cause for thanks on Thanksgiving Day. Charitable institutions cannot see an old-fashioned turkey dinner to the needy this year, because of high prices. J. P. Bennett, superintendent of Central Union Mission, 622 Louisiana avenue, and H. W. Kline, superintendent of Gospel Mission, 214 John Marshall place northwest, are striving to provide as fitting a repast as possible.

Last year these missions distributed nearly 300 baskets of food to needy families. While the need is as great as the greater this year, the supply will be less. The few baskets which will be given in extreme cases of illness or destitution will be minus the customary turkey and other expensive articles. Supt. Bennett's baskets include one chicken, two pounds of sugar, one pound of coffee, a 10-cent pack of tea, a head of cabbage, a peck of potatoes, several turnips, a stalk of celery, a pint of dried peas, hominy, a 10-cent pack of butter and two loaves of bread. Some baskets will contain larger quantities, according to the family's size. In cases of illness jelly donated by Sunday school classes will be added.

Supt. Kline said he is puzzled what to place in his mission's baskets. Roast pork or beef probably will be substituted for poultry. He is buying as much canned goods as possible before prices advance. Both missions are economizing to the end that as many poor people as possible may be fed Thanksgiving Day at the missions. Substantial meals will be provided, including roast meats, vegetables and other dishes. Supt. Kline said that because of scarcity of coal some poor people would not have fuel to cook food-stuffs given them.

Supts. Kline and Bennett tried to arrange the Thanksgiving meal for the needy, but prices of staple products prevented. Last year they bought chickens for 16 cents a pound. This year they must pay 23 cents. Sugar has advanced 2 cents pound, bread 1 cent a loaf, butter 5 cents, coffee 2 cents, cabbage nearly 100 per cent.

Supt. Bennett remarked "beans are more than a luxury. We have substituted hominy."

TELEPHONE BOYS WIN SEATS ON EXCHANGE

John H. and Celestin H. Durand Rewarded for Faithful Work.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Nov. 5.—When the Committee on Admissions to the Stock Exchange holds its next meeting, it will pass upon the admissibility of two one-time telephone clerks of Carlisle, Mellick & Co., who have just been awarded seats in the Exchange by their firm.

The seats to which the one-time telephone clerks, John H. Durand and Celestin H. Durand, brothers, are to receive cost $75,000 each. Practically no event in Wall Street has aroused so much interest as the action of Carlisle, Mellick & Co., in showing such substantial appreciation for the faithful services of the two employees.

Both young men were uniformed pages on the floor of the Stock Exchange within the last ten years. Members of Carlisle, Mellick & Co. made it clear that the young men had done such splendid service for the firm that no reward less than seats on the floor of the exchange seemed in proportion to their deserts.

Jay F. Carlisle noticed them on the floor of the Exchange and was impressed with their alert, businesslike conduct—so much so that he employed them.

For several years the young men have been employed as clerks in positions where slight slips would involve the firm to the extent of thousands of dollars.

FAMED FRENCHMAN DIES.

Paris, Nov. 5.—The Marquis Henri Charles Joseph de Breteuil, personal friend of the late King Edward VII of England and a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in France, died here in his 68th year.

The marquis was a keen sportsman. He traveled extensively. In politics he was a royalist and from 1877 to 1892 he represented the Department of the Hautes-Pyrenees in the Chamber.

On March 3, 1891, he married Miss Lita Garner, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William T. Garner, of New York, at Pau, France.

TO REMOVE DANDRUFF

Get a 15-cent bottle of Danderine at any drug store, pour a little into your hand and rub well into the scalp with the finger tips. By morning most, if not all, of this awful dandruff will have disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.—Adv.

GAS, HEARTBURN INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapiesin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, no fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in your stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors. Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wanted there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store. These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapiesin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

Wilson 195, Hughes, 144 In District Straw Vote

President Wilson still is leading in the straw vote being conducted by O'Donnell's Drug Store at Thirtieth and F streets. In the balloting yesterday twelve votes were cast for Wilson and only one for Hughes. Results to date follow: Wilson, 195; Hughes, 144; Handy, 5; Benson, 2.

No returns from the nation-wide poll being taken by the Rexall chain of 3,000 drug stores, of which O'Donnell's is one, were received yesterday.

DECLARES PROSPERITY SURE IF HUGHES WINS

William T. Galliher, Banker, Confident of Republican Success.

Continued prosperity will be assured if Charles Evans Hughes is elected to the Presidency tomorrow, in the opinion of William T. Galliher, president of the American National Bank, 1215 F street northwest, and vice president of the Washington Bankers' Association.

"I feel confident," said Mr. Galliher last night, "that Mr. Hughes will be elected by a very substantial majority. The popular vote and the electoral vote will show that Mr. Hughes is the country's choice. This is not alone my own opinion, but a view shared by many other local business men with whom I have come in contact recently."

"The present prosperity of the country is predicted almost entirely upon the European war. The Democratic party, although it has claimed all the glory, has been responsible for but little if any of the business boom. As soon as peace is declared the prosperity of the United States will be endangered. Until that time the prosperity of the country probably will continue regardless of who is President. But when that crucial day arrives it will be imperative that a man of strength, a man of firmness, a man of foresight, a man of undisputed ability be in the White House to direct the country's course."

"That man is Mr. Hughes. He is the man needed to establish confidence, to put the prosperity of the nation on a permanent basis instead of a temporary basis. It will take a man of such international legal ability as Mr. Hughes to handle the problems that will arise when the world's great trade war begins. "I feel that with Mr. Hughes in the White House there would be a greater feeling of confidence on the part of the public. And I feel that the volume of business would be multiplied many times."

Governor Drives a Mule Team.

Waco, Tex., Nov. 5.—Gov. James Ferguson, of Texas, drove a six-mule team hitched to a wagon load of cotton in the parade which opened the eleventh annual cotton exposition here yesterday.

PRODIGAL DAUGHTER AS SOCIETY'S VICTIM

Double Standard in Morality De-nounced by Rev. Dr. J. L. Gordon.

Emphasizing that the tragedy of modern life is the tragedy of the prodigal daughter rather than of the prodigal son, Rev. James L. Gordon, D. D., preached a stirring sermon on "The Prodigal Daughter, or the Curse of a Double Standard," in the First Congregational Church, Tenth and G streets northwest, last evening.

Dr. Gordon declared the prodigal son is welcomed with open arms, while the wayward daughter is "thrown out into the snow heap."

"The meanness application of the double standard," he said, "is to the fallen woman, the social outcast. She bears the brunt of it all. There is an element of crookedness and rottenness in the whole thing. The girl is thrust out because we are crooked all through."

Strong thoughts of Dr. Gordon's sermon were:

"If you are false in one thing you are false in all. Wrong thinking is the mother of wrong doing. Right thinking is the mother of right doing. You cannot think crooked and live straight. Because of wrong thinking we are wrong in life. If a man has a wrong heel he has a wrong head. Beware of the man who says business is business, religion is religion and politics is politics. There is something crooked about that man's methods."

Dr. Gordon outlined the following double standards:

"There is a double standard enthroned in the legal realm. The rich man gets more consideration before the bar than does the poor man. If Harry Thaw had been the son of a poor man he would be dead and buried long ago."

"There is a double standard in the pulpit. Some ministers believe one thing and preach the other. The sin which blasts is the sin of inconsistency."

"The church has a double standard. One member will be more welcome than the other. We forget that the common people are the coming people. We shake hands with a man and then shake him. Some people spread themselves rather than spread the gospel."

"There is a double standard in the individual. A person will say one thing to your face and another behind your back."

Dr. Gordon's remarks were based upon the text from Leviticus 24:22. Nearly 1,000 copies of his booklet, "A Plain Talk to Young Women," were distributed at the service.

Dr. Gordon has just come here from Winnipeg, Canada. He is prominent in the literary world, having written several widely known books and pamphlets on religious topics.

CHRYSAEANTHEMUM SHOW ENDS.

Record-Breaking Crowds Attend Annual Exhibition of Flowers.

The chrysanthemum show in the greenhouse at Fourteenth and B streets northwest closed last night after having been visited during the week by record-breaking crowds. Hundreds of people attended on the last day. Officials regard the show as one of the most successful held. Today all the blooms, with the exception of those necessary for seed, will be cut. The flowers will be sent to Washington hospitals.

HUGHES CLUB OF G. U. TO BRAVE DEMOCRACY

Spellbinders Will Invade "Enemy's Country" in Maryland.

The Hughes Republican Club of Georgetown University Law School will close its political campaigning campaign this evening with a big rally at Bethesda, Md. At least 100 students from the law school will root for the speakers. The meeting is to be held in one of the strongest Democratic voting districts in Maryland, and the speakers do not expect undue applause.

John M. Devlin, president of the club, will be the principal speaker. Others who are to speak are John J. O'Day, Jr., whose father is one of the leading Democrats in that section of Maryland; Charles E. A. Smith and Norman B. Landreus. The club is to have a torchlight parade election night, starting from the school at 7:30 o'clock. The line of march will be to the newspaper offices.

WATCH YOUR CHILD- DREN'S TOILET HABITS

Irregularity Makes Cross. Weak, Sickly Children.

It is second nature to the child to neglect itself in this important matter—one of the worst possible things for its health. Colds, fever, sore throats, constipation and indigestion all can usually be traced back to this neglect at toilet.

Watch your children—see to it that they have a regular time for going every day, and if you find that they are neglecting it, or if they keep insisting that they don't have to go then it is your duty to help them and Nature by giving an NR Tablet when they go to bed at night. It will not grip or cause trouble during the night, but in the morning they will feel fine. Do this every night for a couple of weeks and the morning habit will be established.

This will keep your children in good health and free from nervousness and stomach and bowel troubles. Remember the name of this splendid laxative—Nature's Remedy—just ask your druggist for NR Tablets—50c a box.
